Jaycees Make Annual Contribution To Rescue Squad

The Appomattox County Jaycees have made their annual contribution of needed equipment to the Appomattox County Rescue Squad. The equipment included a hydraulic floor jack and two oxygen flow meters with oxygen tanks. The hydraulic floor jack was needed by the Rescue Squad to enable its members to put tire chains on when necessary to save time on emergency calls. The hydraulic jack cost approximately $112.00. The two oxygen flow meters and tanks will be given to two squad members to be used by these members in their respective areas of the County until emergency vehicles can arrive on the scene. The Rescue Squad believes these units will offer great assistance for heart attack victims, etc. These two units cost approximately $120.00 bringing the amount of contribution from the Appomattox County Jaycees to the Appomattox County Rescue Squad to a total of $232.00 for 1973.

This is just another way in which the Appomattox County Jaycees are striving to make Appomattox County a better place in which to live work and play. The funds for the Joycee projects come from Radio Day, Light Bulb Sale and Donkey Ball Games. The funds derived form the Country Music Show are used only for the Christmas Shopping Tour. The funds from the Apple Butter Sale are used to help support Camp Virginia Jaycee a camp for mentally retarded children.

Contributions to other local service organizations either have been or will be made in the near future.

Help the Jaycees to help Appomattox County by participating in their upcoming projects.

MINIMUM SCHOOL BUDGET GETS APPROVAL OF SUPERVISORS

legally there was no reason why the school could not be used by a private group.

The board granted the request and the school facility will be available on Saturday, March 17. Board members commended the group on their personal interest in the education of all children.

Mrs. Jean Hesson, General Supervisor, sent to the board a report from the Committee set up regarding Instructional Materials on Communicable Diseases. The report stated that "The State Board of Education has approved the usage of two films for health education instruction in the public schools of Virginia. Theya re entitled V D - A NEW FOCUS and ONE QUARTER MILLION TEENAGERS."

The two films have been previewed by a local committee appointed by E. W. Peyton, superintendent, and they recommended that they be approved by the School Board to be used in grades 7 - 12 for the 1972 - 73 session and thereafter be used in grades 7 - 11 and 9 only.

The board approved the recommendation. Those serving on the committee were Dr. A. A. Fratrick, Mrs. Brenda Richardson, Mrs. Jackie Robinson, Mrs. Louise Martin, Mr. L. A. Beamon, Rev. Deryl Holliday and Mrs. Hesson.

In other business the board approved six trips for Appomattox County High School classes and club groups and approved two trips for second grade students at Appomattox Primary School.

William Dudley, Assistant Supervisor Vocational Education, State Department of Education, presented a report and showed color slides on greenhouses to the members of the School Board at their meeting on Friday afternoon. Plans for the new high school, now under construction, include the building of a greenhouse to be used in Vocational Agricultural Instruction. The approximate cost for the equipment and the building would range from $45,000.00 to $55,000 and would accommodate 16 students at a given time and, depending on time set for each class, could accommodate 50 students per day. Federal and State funding would be available for 71% of cost for the equipment and approximately 50% funding would be available for the building.

Eugene Peyton, superintendent, reported to the board that he had been informed that if a kindergarten is started in the public school system this year $90,000 would be added to the appropriation. There would be an anticipated enrollment of 150 kindergarten children and space would definitely be a problem. Board members voted to have Peyton further investigate the possibility and see what could be arranged.

Mr. Peyton, in other business, reported that there are two teaching days left in the school calendar that had been set aside for "snow days" and if not needed for this purpose he proposed that the two days be added to the Easter Holiday for County Schools, thus closing school on Wednesday, April 18, 1973 and re-opening on Wednesday, April 25, 1973. The schedule could be changed if need arises. The board approved this proposal.

Raiders Enjoyed Good Season

The Appomattox Raiders closed out their 1972-73 basketball season with a 23-2 overall record and went to the finals in the Region III tournament and lost by three points to the fine Drewry Mason team. The Raiders will lose six players this year at graduation including all five starters. The five starters were Leon Robinson, Bobby Layne, Dennis Totty, Kenneth Gafford, and Sammy Waddell. The lone senior on the team is Allan Snell, a reserve.

Leon Robinson was the big gun for the Raiders this past season as he scored 524 points in 25 games, including 34 points, good for right at 21 points per game average. He scored in double figures in all but those games, as the only time he didn't hit double figures being the second time they played Buckingham, he was held to six points. He scored better than 20 points in seven different games. His high game was 34 points against Jefferson-Forrest, but his best all around game was probably the one against Lord Botetourt in the finals when he scored 33 points and pulled down 18 rebounds. He hit 15 of 20 shots from the floor, a lot of them from 15 to 15 foot jumpers. He also scored between 10 to 15 points per game and his 6-8 height made him very effective on defense.

Robinson also went over the 1000 point mark this year in the course of the tournament.

Bobby Layne was the other mainstay for the well-balanced club as he carried a 17 point per game average for 25 games, scoring 425 points. He, like Robinson, had only one game that he didn't score in double figures. He scored 20 or more seven times, but was also held to Bobby was probably the finest playing player for the team as he would come on strong in the second half of a few games and get the job done of his best games came when he was held to the Raiders' game in the Semi-finals of the Seminole District Tournament when he scored 15 points in the last quarter to help the Raiders a 53-45 win. Layne had six points at the end not score in the third quarter, but hit four field goals and seven of seven free throws in the last quarter to finish with 21 points for the night. He was a well-balanced player in that he can do just about anything on the court you want him to do. He can shoot well from the outside, tough also under the basket, offensively and defensively, handled the ball well and is very unselfish.

Another Raider to average double figures was Kenneth Gafford. He scored 265 points, for a 10.6 average. He scored double figures in 13 of the 25 games. Kenneth best all around would probably have to be Sammy Brookville as he scored 48 points in the three games the Raiders played in. Sammy proved for a little better than 9 points per game average. His big asset was his willingness on defense as he was one of the better scorers in practice below their average. His trouble held him back at times as his aggressiveness would get him to get into foul trouble early in a lot of games and had to be benched.

Sammy Waddell, a real spark plug of the team was also a natural leader. He was not concerned that the others knew his quickness and ball handling was a big factor in getting the Raiders to the Regionals. On defense he could guard anybody in the league and do a great job on them and probably stole the ball and broke up as many offensive threat as anybody could do. His pin point passing and ball handling broke the press many times. Sammy only averaged about six points per game, but on some nights he could tear you apart from the outside with his jumps from the top of the circle.

Dennis Totty, the 6-7 man, did not come on strong until about half way the season. He scored a total of 210 points, an average of about nine per game. In the last eight regular season games, he scored 14 or more in all but one game and had 10 in that one. Dennis did a good job rebounding and he blocked a lot of shots during the year and his presence was always felt by the opponent because of his height.

Nathan Snell, the other graduating senior did not see as much action as the starting five, but he scored in about every game he played in. He came off the bench and scored eight quick points against Staunton River in the tournament and was very quick. He had great all around team play at all times when he was playing.

The other man that was as big asset to the Raiders this past year and will be back next year is Mark Eggleston. He was the sixth man for the Raiders this year and averaged about six points per game and scored in 23 of the 25 games. He is cable of breaking a game open at any time. He hit double figures in only two games this past season. He had 13 in the Christmas Tournament in Roanoke and came in to score 12 in a game against Jefferson-Forrest. He had 10 in one quarter of that game. He was one of the better foul shooters the Raiders had and was very good under the basket as well as on the outside. He will be the only man back next year with a lot of playing experience, but should be a good floor leader.

The Raiders, under Coach Cliff Morris, in compiling their 23-2 record was very impressive in many ways. The team offensively scored 1809 points in 25 games for a 72.4 average per game. The team defensively allowed 1347 points, an 53.1 average per game. The highest point total was 100 and the lowest they scored was 52. They scored 70 or more points in 11 games, and held opponents to 60 or less in 19 games. In nine of these games, the opponents were held to 50 or less. In Coach Morris's two years here he had a 41-8 record, been to the championship game in the regional both times, won the Christmas Tournament, the Regular season title, the Seminole District Tournament and was runnerup last year. The Raiders was much a second half team as they did a lot of pressing, but in some games they opened it up in the first half. All in all this is a well balanced and unselfish ball team and the records show it.

The other members of this team that did not see to much action this past season, but will be returning next year are William Mann, Richard McCoy, James Reed, Al Sears and Robert Smith.

Dan Daniel Clarifies Fee Proposals

Statement from honorable Dan Daniel regarding corps of engineers' fee proposal for both John H. Kerr reservoir and Philpott Dam:

My office has received a great many inquiries expressing concern over reported fee charges for fishing and other recreational activities at John H. Kerr Dam and Philpott Dam which are situated in the Fifth Congressional District.

Recently misleading articles released by Washington news sources indicated that the Corps of Engineers is proposing a $5.00 fee charge for boats using lake facilities and other fees which would seriously impair the recreational use and tourist attraction of these two facilities.

I have been in contact with officials of the Corps of Engineers and have been assured that there is no intention of charging boat fees at either Kerr or Philpott Reservoirs. Apparently this misunderstanding arose through an error in the Federal Register article which appeared on February 1, 1973, wherein the word "rental" was inadvertently omitted when discussing boat charges. The Government does not rent boats at either John H. Kerr Reservoir or Philpott Dam and, therefore, such charges would not apply.

It is regrettable that wide publicity has been given to this erroneous impression, and I am delighted that the Corps of Engineers recognizes the tourist advantages of both of these sites. We in Virginia are fortunate in having these fine projects located within our boundaries, and it is a source of great satisfaction to us that tourists from all over the country each year make use of these facilities. Certainly we do not want to do anything which would hamper or dimish this asset.
